Your recent letter to [redacted] has been brought to my attention. I would like personally to thank you for your gracious expression of appreciation to him. It is a source of much satisfaction to me when such recognition is given to a member of my organization.

I also want to express to you my personal concern about [redacted] accident and realize that the consequences have not been more serious. I cannot help but feel a great responsibility for the well-being and safety of the young women who come to Washington to enter in our service. As a parent, I can well appreciate the seriousness of this occasion to you and am gratified at the confidence expressed in your willingness to permit [redacted] and to remain here.

Please extend my thanks to your family for joining you in your warm letter.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
